

Principal

Joseph Miller, AIA

Mr. Miller came to Denver in 1988 as a member of the Denver International Airport design team. In addition to DIA, he has been involved in the design of a number of high profile projects including the New Orleans Convention Center Expansion, Santa Ana Police Administration Building and Community College of Aurora. Since venturing out on his own in 1995, Mr. Millers' work has been noted for its dynamic design and its innovative use of everyday materials and building systems.

Education

Masters of Architecture
Tulane University, 1985

Principal

Joseph Church, AIA

Mr. Church began working along Colorado's Front Range in 1996. Prior to becoming a principal with JoeArchitect he was the Project Architect for both the Pediatric Suite and Children's Hematology and Oncology Associates at Presbyterian St. Luke's Medical Center in Denver, Dr. Stephen Eppler's Medical Suite in Lonetree, Pine Top Orthodontics in Colorado Springs, and the Fountain Branch Library in Fountain Colorado.

Education

Bachelor of Architecture
Ball State University, 1997